MRS. JOHN WILLIAM CAUDELL
the former Miss Linda Chloe Johnston

Caudell-Johnston Vows Exchanged

Slender flame-tipped tapers entwined with ivy against stained glass windows provided illumination Saturday evening September 13 at the First Christian Church of Wrightsville as Miss Linda Chloe Johnston, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Lester R. Johnston, wended her way toward the altar on the arm of her father to pledge her troth to Mr. John William Caudell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parke Caudell, of Tollesboro, Kentucky.

An arch of Emerald green and Leather leaf fern provided a beautiful background, while two multi-branched candle trees holding cathedral white tapers graced either side of the pulpit. The soft candle glow complimented the sunburst arrangement of white gladioli, stock, chrysanthemums, accented by Emerald green and lace fern. Pews were marked with trailing ivy and white satin ribbons. Mr. Gary Blount and Mr. William Ralph Jackson, III unrolled the aisle cloth prior to the entry of the bridal party.

Mr. Waverly Kennedy, elder of the Wrightsville congregation received the entire wedding party and gave the introductory message after which the bride's father, minister of the Wrightsville church, gave his daughter for marriage. He then proceeded to officiated for solemnization of matrimony, in taking of the vows, and receiving a pledge of fidelity from each in the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Hayes Hall, organist, provided traditional wedding selections and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Billy Hodges.

For her day of days the central figure was the essence of beauty gowned in traditional white. Her dress featured a floor length A-line skirt of appliques of re-embroidered lace and seed pearls. The detachable chapel train was of the same material and gracefully fell from the shoulders. Her chapel length veil of bouffant French illusion was held in place by scalloped re-embroidered lace encircled with pearls and silk organza roses mingled with orange blossoms. The veil was designed and hand made for the lovely bride by Mrs. R. O. Edenfield.

She carried a white satin chantilly lace covered Bible topped with a yellow throated white orchid, cascaded with white tube roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Susan Johnston, sister of the bride, served as Maid of Honor. Mrs. Robert Scott Craycraft of Tollesboro, Kentucky was selected as Matron of Honor. Serving as senior bridesmaids were: Miss Sandra Johnston, Miss Gail Morris, cousins of the bride from Lynchburg, Virginia, and Miss Kathy Johnston, sister of the bride. Miss Sherri Holmes was chosen as junior bridesmaid.

Little Misses Terri Fulford and Cheryl Webb were flower girls.

The groom selected as Best Man, his cousin, Mr. Larry Hull of Tollesboro, Kentucky.

Ushers were Messrs. Gary Blount, Curtis Jackson, William Jackson, III, and Carl Stanley, Jr. Master Lester R. Johnston, Jr., brother of the bride was junior usher. Masters Joel Stanley and Bob Jackson served as ring bearers.

Mr. and Mrs. Caudell will make their home in Tollesboro Kentucky.

Out of town guests besides those in the wedding party were Mrs. Janice Barbour of Tollesboro, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Adron Morris of Lynchburg. Also, Mrs. Frank Nuckols of Vera, maternal grandmother of the bride (the former Mrs. Willie Carter).

Miss Guill Pledged To Sorority

Miss Julia Anne Guill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian C. Guill of Route 4, Appomattox, Virginia, was pledged to the Alpha Upsilon Chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma Social Sorority at Madison College in Harrisonburg, Virginia on September 26, 1969.

Miss Guill is a 1967 graduate of Appomattox High School where she was a cheerleader, varsity basketball player and a member of the Beta Club. Presently, she is a junior at the college majoring in Psychology.

Baird-Smith Vows Exchanged

Mrs. Donald B. Everett, whose maiden name was Wanda Austin, formerly of Lynchburg, Va., now residing at 1941 Hillman Avenue in Belmont, California, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Patricia Smith to Richard M. Baird.

The wedding took place on September 7, 1969, at 2 p.m. at the home of Patricia's stepbrother on Skyline Blvd. in Redwood City, California.

The couple exchanged their vows in an outdoor setting, before an altar of white gladiolas, pink carnations, crysanthemums and daisies.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for relatives and friends was held in the home of the bride's mother and step father in Belmont.

Richard is employed by his late father's business, Sanden Painting Co. in San Bruno, California.

The bride's mother is the daughter of the late Bertha Nowlin Austin and the granddaughter of the late Mrs. Emma Nowlin of Appomattox County.

MRS. JOSEPH EDWARD LEGRAND
the former Miss Angela Cheryl McCormick

Nuptials Held

The marriage of Miss Angela Cheryl McCormick, daughter of Mrs. Vera McCormick of Gladstone, Virginia to Joseph Edward LeGrand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. LeGrand of Appomattox, took place at eight o'clock the evening of September 26th. in Maple Grove Baptist Church, Gladstone, Va.

The Rev. George Hughes, pastor of the Church, officiated the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by Mrs. Belle Reynolds, pianist and Mr. John Hall, soloist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Harry McCormick, Jr. the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of cane light tissue faille, designed with a molded, Empire bodice and slim controlled skirt, with soft, side fullness. Ruffles of imported Venise Lace outlined the high Victorian neckline and the long-sleeves and formed a front panel. From a self-covered button back yolk, swept the full circular chapel train. Her tiered veil of silk illusion was attached to a profile face framing head piece of Venise lace petals, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and white pom pons with a white orchid.

Mrs. Harry McCormick of Gladstone, attended the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were his McCormick of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Jo Appomattox, cousin of the bride groom. They wore slipper length delft blue kanzie, fashioned princess lines. Set off by tiered in velvet ribbon the high neckline and the long sleeves. Their matching bowed headpieces swirled in veiling. Attendants carried a white spider mum bouquet complimenting the gowns.

Melanie McCormick, sister of the bride, and Pamela Howard. Also, Brother, pastor of the First Church of Raleigh, Virginia, will be speaking following the missionettes presentation and we hope men will be a real blessing to you and a challenge to the messages from the Lord.

Fall Missions budget will be the largest we have had. But this is as it must be. Our Church has grown since our Church grows, this work should grow with Faith Promise goal, for beginning in October, and next October, will be $7,000 which will be in addition to five or six thousand that will come from our offerings. This will give us a total missions giving this year of somewhere in the neighborhood of twelve to thirteen thousand dollars.

This is not a burden, but rather an opportunity for us to meet God's challenge in Missions giving. I believe that our people will rise to the occasion and see that the goals of our Faith Promise Missionary program for this year, as well the regular offering, is supplied.

Our goal before us, our task before us is great and the lost of the World, wait to hear the gospel story. What will we do??

ADVENTIST CHURCH

Appomattox, Virginia
Sabbath School Lesson for Sept. 27, 1969
Subject: "Be Ye Perfect."
Memory Verse: "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is heaven is perfect." Matt. 5:48
Lesson Outline: Phase No. 1. Importance of the Command. Q1. Perfection lost through sin. Gen. 3:7. Q2. Taught by Christ. Matt. 5:48. Q3. Paul's conception of the command. "Be ye perfect." Phil. 3:12-14. Phase no. 2. Means of Attaining Perfection. Q4. Not through outward display or aims. 1 Sam. 16:7. Q5. Through complete surrender. Matt. 16:24,25. Q6. Through the Word. 2 Tim. 3:16, 17. Q7. Q8. Step-by step process. Heb. 6:1. Q9. By beholding Christ. 2 Cor. 3:18. Phase No. 3. Perfection to Become a Reality. Q10 in Christ. Col. 2:9,10. Q11. Christ's ideal for His church. Eph. 5:25-27. Q12. In His people before the coming of the Lord. 1 John 3:2.

NOTE -"The first record of man's creation reads: "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He them." Gen. 1:27. A perfect creation; a perfect thing; But sin marred man's perfect life; it caused him to lose his perfect character."

"The eyes of them both were opened. What irony lies in these words, which record the fulfillment of Satan's ambiguous promise; The eyes of their intellect were open — they realized that they were no longer innocent. Their physical eyes were opened — they saw that they were naked, "and made themselves aprons. Standing ashamed in each other presence, they sought to evade the disgrace of their nakedness. Their fig-leaf aprons were a pitiful substitute for the radiant garments of innocence they had forfeited," S.D.A. Bible Commentary, on Gen. 3:7.

The standard Jesus upheld before His hearers in His sermons on the Mount was "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." The word 'therefore' implies a conclusion, an inference from what has gone before. He was describing the unfailing mercy and love of God, and He bids them therefore to be perfect." The conditions of eternal life under grace are just what they were in Eden — perfect righteousness, harmony with God, perfect conformity to the principles of His law. So, with Paul we must say "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Phil. 3:13,14.
